Kennedy, Stevenson Pound Away

Democrats Bombard Ike's Administration

By The Associated Press
Some bitter, Democratic barbs have come at the Eisenhower administration one after another.

"Frozen in the ice of its own indifference" was the description Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts tagged on the administration Tuesday.

The cause of "this period of leaderless lassitude" was the accusation made Tuesday night by Adlai Stevenson.

In the Illinois primary, Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who stands largely on the administration record but did not campaign in the state, received a far smaller vote than President Eisenhower rolled up four years ago.

On the whole, Democrats outvoted Republicans in the light turnout. The Republicans nominated Gov. William G. Stratton for a third term. The Democrats named Otto Kerner to oppose him.

Sen. Paul H. Douglas was unopposed on the Democratic ballot for nomination to a third term. Incomplete returns gave him a larger complimentary vote than Nixon received.

On the Republican side, Sam Witter of Chicago led five other candidates in the race for Senate nominee.

Stevenson, who has denied he is a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, acted very much like one as he addressed a crowd in the gymnasium of the University of Virginia in Charlottesville.

—Adlai Stevenson is still playing it coy.

He won't say yes, and he won't say no — at least not so positively — to this simple question:

Are you or aren't you interested in having the Democrats nominate you for president again this July?

Stevenson has been back in this country for only three days after nine weeks in South America. Already he has held a half dozen press conferences and has been buttonholed by a score of reporters anxious for the story behind the story.

In all these that have come to light he consistently has answered: He doesn't plan to lift a finger to gain the nomination. He neither seeks nor expects to be his party's choice for the third straight time.

Which brings us to his speech Tuesday night at the University of Virginia: He lambasted the Republican administration as enthusiastically as he ever did while running in 1952 and 1956.

As one journalist put it: "If this isn't the speech of a candidate, what is it?"

This reporter has spent two days following Stevenson about the pleasant Virginia countryside where so much of our history was written.

Repeatedly there were variations of this scene: He was leaving Monticello, the magnificent home of Thomas Jefferson, when a woman tourist called out, "Mr. Stevenson, I want to vote for you."

Stevenson laughed and said: "I'm afraid you're four years too late."

But if he expects no political miracles, he also acts like a man who would like to be ready in case one should come along.

Soviets Outpacing U.S., Europe In Economic Growth

GENEVA (AP) — Severe labor shortages have slowed the Soviet Union's economic growth rate, but the Soviets still are outpacing the United States and Western Europe.

The annual survey of the U.N. Economic Commission for Europe said the current Soviet seven-year plan — 1959-65 — projects a yearly expansion rate of 7.2 to 7.4 per cent for the period.

By comparison, the current expansion averages for Western Europe is 4.2 per cent and for the United States it is 2.2 per cent.

The Soviet economy expanded at a 12 per cent rate in 1955-56, 8.8 per cent in 1956-58, and 8 per cent last year. Manpower shortages have been the major factor in the continuing decline, the report said, citing low birth rates and high infant mortality in the early postwar years. The commission said the shortage "is most likely to be particularly acute" in 1959-65.

Soviet trade with the West dropped slightly last year but jumped 24 per cent with its Communist neighbors.

Porter Scolds Dems' Chairman Says DiSalle Has Big Political Aspirations

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Cuyahoga County Engineer Albert S. Porter stopped here and in Dayton Tuesday en route to Cincinnati as he did home campaigning for delegates to the Democratic national convention.

Here, Porter called down Cuyahoga County Democratic Chairman Ray T. Miller Sr. for Miller's statement concerning how the delegate slate headed by Porter would vote.

In Dayton he made a few remarks about what he believes are the aspirations of Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, his opponent in the delegate-candidate battle.

Porter leads a 29-vote delegate slate entered by Miller to oppose a full 64-vote slate pledged to Gov. Michael V. DiSalle as favorite son in the May 3 primary.

Porter called a statement of Miller's "erroneous," and said his slate will decide their course of action by caucus should Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), to whom they are pledged, fail to get the presidential nod at the convention.

Previously Miller had said the delegates will stay with the senator until nominated "and failing that, we pledge to follow him to whomsoever he may go for president or vice president."

Porter commented:

"If Kennedy should fall by the wayside we would be happy to have his advice and counsel and then meet in caucus to decide what we will do."

He added that DiSalle's delegates were tied to the governor's choice after Kennedy. However, DiSalle reiterated at a later news conference that his slate is for Kennedy but will decide in caucus where to go if the senator should fall.

Democratic State Chairman William L. Coleman, also at the news conference, commented that there is "no question about our policy" of DiSalle's promise to caucus if Kennedy fails.

Porter said the governor's plan to set up a branch of the State Democratic Committee in Cuyahoga County "has laid a great big egg."

In Dayton, Porter said DiSalle might be attempting to use his office as a "stepping stone to bigger things."

"I think he has always liked Washington," Porter continued, adding that the governor might want the vice presidency or a Cabinet post.

He said that he would guess DiSalle might be "favorably disposed" toward the support of Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) for the presidency.

Asked for comment on the "guess," DiSalle replied that he has contacted 14,000 Democratic leaders in the U.S. in support of Kennedy. Had he been "favorably disposed," DiSalle added, he could have announced it previously.

They Fight for Political Lives---

As it must to all politicians, election time has come for some of the biggest names in U.S. politics. The 24 leaders of the Senate pictured above are campaigning in their home states (shaded) for return in November to the seats they now hold. A total of 34 Senate seats are at stake, but among those shown above are represented the greatest massed political power in the body. There are committee chairmen and members and party spokesmen whose every word, now, makes reporters' pencils skitter. Included in the Senate's only woman member. Other states electing, with less critical contests, are Alaska, Colorado, New Mexico, North Dakota, Rhode Island, Virginia, Wyoming, Alabama, Oregon and West Virginia. Experts do not anticipate a change in Democratic control of the Senate. But if there are upsets in the contests of those shown, there could be a shift in the balance of power now held by a coalition of southern Democrats and conservative Republicans.

British Soldiers, Woman Set Off on Walks Across U.S.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The British are walking all over the United States.

Two snappy-striding sergeants started it Tuesday, on a 3,032-mile hike from San Francisco to New York.

Today Dr. Barbara Moore, 56, the Russian-born wife of a British sculptor, follows 'em down the pike, or rather up U.S. 40.

"And I'll pass them, too," she says.

The reporters and photographers who met Dr. Moore at San Francisco airport Tuesday night had few doubts the sturdy vegetarian would do it.

She was wearing a bright red wool suit and a red kerchief when she got off her plane.

"I want people to be able to recognize me," she explained.

She was indignant there was no one but newsmen and photographers to meet her.

She said the Hotel Corp. of America promised to furnish a truck to accompany her on the transcontinental hike.

"I need the truck to carry my juices and my extra shoes," Dr. Moore said, "and I don't even know where I'm to spend the night."

She was standing next to five cases of juices—fruit, beet, carrot and tomato.

The soldiers were tougher to talk to. Reporters had to jog alongside them as they strode at 75 paces per minute toward Cordelia, where they spent the night. Cordelia, about 45 miles from here, is halfway between San Francisco and Sacramento.

Bomb Threat Halts Negro Sit-Down Demonstration

By The Associated Press

A new maneuver—the anonymous bomb threat—broke up a Negro sit-down demonstration against segregated lunch counters in a Nashville, Tenn. department store.

Police and firemen, acting quickly Tuesday after receiving a telephone tip that a bomb was in the building, cleared customers and sit-downers from McLellan's, a variety store. No bomb was found.

The sit-down touched off scattered racial incidents which resulted in the arrest of two white persons and five Negroes.

Negro college students, for the second consecutive day, took seats at eating facilities at several department, drug and variety store lunch counters. None was served.

At McLellan's, hundreds of Easter shoppers jammed the area as the Negroes sat down. A taunting crowd of white persons forced them to move on but not before white youths grabbed anti-segregation signs and punched a Negro demonstrator. A group of 50 white youths beat a Negro who hurled a drink bottle into the crowd from a second-story window. Policemen dispersed the crowd.

In Little Rock, Ark., Negroes invaded eating facilities at two chain variety stores and two locally owned department stores. There were no disturbances and no arrests.

Negro leaders in Miami threatened boycott and picket lines unless lunch counters there are integrated by Monday. The mayor asked that the ultimatum be withdrawn.

5 Persons Killed In Texas Tornado

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP)—Three persons died and 32 were injured as a tornado caught most residents of a West Texas village in church and all but swept the place off the map Tuesday night.

But for a woman's warning cry seconds before the twister struck, the toll probably would have been much greater in the crossroads community of Sunnyside, about halfway between Amarillo and Lubbock.

Mrs. C. M. Rogers, wife of Sunnyside's Baptist pastor, spotted the dark and threatening cloud and sounded an alarm.

Nearly 40 men at a meeting in her husband's church scrambled for two story cellars close by. Most of them made it. Several were too late.

"The men had to put up their arms and hold up the rafters," said Muriel Rogers, 10, son of the minister, describing how they kept the roof of one shelter from collapsing on 30 odd persons.

Sunnyside residents emerged to find the farming community shattered. The writhing storm levelled their church, store, grain elevator, cotton gin and four or five homes. A half dozen other houses lost their roofs.

Grief-Stricken Disciples Seek Refuge

(Editor's note: Soon after Judas the betrayer had fled the Upper Room, the Master and His disciples hurried to Gethsemane and had an extraordinary experience that was to be theirs that night. This is the third of five articles on occurrences at "The Hallowed House.")

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer

A pall of fear lay on her house that night, but the widow Mary did not bar the outer gate.

She could not. Out there in a turgid midnight that throbbed with the hot breath of hunters and the hunted were friends and her son.

"Chayah, Elah," she beseeched. "Save them, Oh God, save them!"

Both life and death had marched through that gate these past hours, or so it seemed to her, both the soft, sandaled steps of Jesus, and the nail-booted tromp of searching Roman legions.

She did not sleep. None of the household slept. The mother of the beloved rabban sat sobbing in a guest chamber, her face hidden against her hands. The other women clustered about a tripod of coals, their phrases low, broken.

Dread fingered through the widow's fine, tapestried house like a thin, stinging dust that pricked the flesh and sank through to the very marrow of being.

She walked the floor, carrying a bone-handled lamp, for no reason she knew, except that she wanted a light to guide her cherished ones home. It was irrational, but there was nothing rational she could do for them.

THE HOUSE, the night, every movement and moment had become a horror, the sound of voices, the flash of swinging lanterns, every wind that stirred the leaves of the courtyard arbor, the creak of a door, a sibilant step against marble floor.

She was beyond being frightened or shocked. First one way and then the other, the events loomed in her mind.

She could see the militia massed in her yard, trampling the marguerites, their rude captains clomping through her house, opening chests and storerooms, and the questions. The agents of Caaphas also were there with clubs and staves.

The pinched man, the betrayer who had quit the paschal supper she served, kept saying the Galileans had gone on to the wine press, to Gethsemane, on the mountain of Olives beyond the Kidron valley. So the pursuers had left.

VIVID, TOO, remained the image of Jesus at that last supper, the sturdy songs, His serene fortitude. "... becaus I live, ye shall live . . . your sorrow shall be turned into joy." But the strength had faded away across the city.

She had been relieved beyond measure when her son, Mark, came running back to the house, his cloak stripped from him and his tunic torn, pouring out a breathless account of the seizure in the Gethsemane grove.

They had shackled Jesus, and Peter swung wildly with a sword but then he fled and the others, too, all except the boy who had followed the detachment. A soldier had seized him, too, but he slid out of his coat and got away.

The widow Mary clung to him, unable to speak or comprehend fully what had happened. Her boy had returned; he was alive. She could withstand the worst now, but he was wracked from her arms, and bespake more of Jesus.

SHE PALED, fighting down the hurt. It was as if he had brushed her aside for a larger love. There was a rapid, constrained knocking at the door, and she flung it open heedlessly. Two of the fugitives bolted inside, jerking the door closed behind them, and holding it there.

They were only the first. Intermittently alone or in pairs, the others came, dirty, ashamed, their skin scratched, their mantles ripped by branches as they walked or individually, but altogether headlong and perverse, a single, thick, discordant sound, more beast than human.

The disciples could hide here from the madness, so long as safety endured. But nothing could heal the wound of that day. John, his face gray, ventured out with Jesus' mother and the other women to the hill of Golgotha.

From the roof Mary could see the tops of the crosses beyond the western wall. A haze gathered over the mountains of Moab, and descended on the city. Her vision strained, and a hard wind rose in dark coils of red dust, blinding her, whipping her gown, shrouding the horizon in darkling crimson.

Her son came and stood beside her, his arm encircling her waist. She found his hand, and slowly pressed it.

The ground trembled, and shook the foundations of the house that had been sanctuary to the Savior.

Tomorrow: A disbelieved tale.

Each new report they brought was more distressing than the last. The Sanhedrin had condemned Jesus, and sought a death decree from the Roman governor.

The hollow-eyed, beaten disciples slunk to the cellar, weeping. Mary placed platters before them, but they did not eat.

She stood on the roof, and watched the mob collecting first on the eastern hill at the Roman praetorium, then moving across the viaduct to the palace of Herod, not far from her own dwelling.

SHE COULD HEAR the mixed, collective din of humanity, not distinguished or individually, but altogether headlong and perverse, a single, thick, discordant sound, more beast than human.

The disciples could hide here from the madness, so long as safety endured. But nothing could heal the wound of that day. John, his face gray, ventured out with Jesus' mother and the other women to the hill of Golgotha.

Way Out of a School Impasse

Obviously unable to resolve their differences, residents in the sprawling Mahoning Local School District are expected to see their territory split by the Mahoning County Board of Education at a meeting scheduled May 4.

It is unfortunate that the consolidated district must be split but Sebring factions on three successive elections have knocked down bond issues which would have financed construction of a new centralized high school.

The Mahoning Local territory extends from the western edge of Salem to Sebring on the opposite side and south into part of Butler township and all of Knox Township in Columbiana County. At present all high school students in the district must attend McKinley High School in Sebring.

Single-Minded Public Devotion

Congress is considering again whether to penalize military careerists who retire and make use of their contacts to land jobs with private companies that sell military hardware to the Pentagon.

This is a proposition that Congress should consider a long time before it makes a decision. Every U.S. representative and senator is potentially in a position to use his influence in the government for private enterprise some day if he has bad luck at the polls.

Congressmen like to talk about going back home to practice law if they get licked, but what they dream about is practicing law in Washington, where they have learned all the government ropes the hard way.

Every time they make it appear a double standard has been set up to test single-minded public devotion they bring the day closer when their constituents will wonder if a single standard wouldn't be more equitable.

Why should it be wrong for a private citizen who takes a temporary job in Washington to own stock in a company doing business with the government and all right for congressmen to own stock in the same companies?

Why should it be wrong for a retired military officer to accept a post with a private company because he has good Washington contacts and all right for a retired public official to open up shop in Washington and use his contacts for all they're worth?

Why should it be wrong for officials in the executive branch of the government to make and use contacts in the performance of their duty — to accept hospitality and travel accommodations from them, in some instances — and all right for legislators to do the same thing?

Every issue in government that shows the existence of a double standard of behavior — one for congressmen and another one for everybody else — brings closer the day when a single standard will be instituted by public demand. If the federal government is going to be under inspection for purity by legislative decree, those making the decree must undergo inspection too.

Suppression Might Be Successful

At the exact moment when repression of South Africa's Negroes had been successful enough to suggest it might be a complete success, the attempted assassination of Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd improves the chance.

Normal reaction from a lethal attack on the head of state is a crack down on every potential source of trouble. Whether or not there is a connection between the attack on Prime Minister Verwoerd and the threatened uprising of South African Negroes is of no importance. The attack will toughen public policy and drive every public official to a frenzy of strength-showing and weight-throwing. Negroes will be the principal targets.

If the net effect is to quiet the news from South Africa, giving the impression that complete order has been restored, measures under way in Britain to reprove the South African government for its excesses will be

Grass Fire Season

Grass fires are giving firemen their usual spring caletenies.

It's that time of year when lots and yards are being burned off. Frequently the fires get out of hand and the owners have to call for help. A sudden shift of wind can send a fire racing in all directions and in the rural and suburban districts, particularly, this can be a real hazard.

It's advisable that you check with your township fire warden before burning off tracts of ground. They will issue permits, which are required by the Ohio Division of Forestry. In case you don't know your township fire warden, contact Fire Chief Clarence Wright at the Salem fire station. You might be glad you did.

Bob Hall to Leave

The announcement yesterday that Robert E. Hall was leaving his post as executive vice president of the First National Bank caught many of his friends by surprise. Bob, in his five years here, has plunged into more community activities than the average man would in 15 years.

Bob has accepted an executive position with the National Bank and Trust Co. at Troy where he will be groomed for the presidency. His civic contribution here will be missed, but his many friends are happy of the opportunity he has found at Troy.

Once Cver

Ben Hur, grossing seven million, is rolling up grosses through Oscars. No wonder movie folk ignore the advice to "Keep away from horse."

War over videotaping in hunts for hoods at its height, with usual arguments that album can tap a till, tap a law and order suspended. World opinion will be lulled to sleep. No one will give more than a passing thought to the possibility that a minority of willful Afrikaners in South Africa may become the symbolic point of hatred for all Negroes who have been given cause to mistrust whites.

This is an era when constituted authority is expected to prove its right to rule by hearing complaints and dealing with complainants fairly. Only in Hungary has the rule been spurned with conspicuous success. Hungarians were brought to heel by their Communist masters in a demonstration of force that shocked the world. But it eliminated all disorder in Hungary.

It is entirely possible the government of South Africa could repeat the success of the Hungarian repression. The prospect is not a happy one to think about, but it is possible. It was the secret of colonialism for centuries.

Holy Week

This Holy Week takes on special significance because of the simultaneous observance by Christians of the passion of Christ and by Jews of the Passover.

The two solemn religious occasions are as intertwined as they are divergent in significance. They emphasize a common moral teaching of both Judaism and Christianity.

They underscore the religious foundation of our way of life. They promote the need for understanding and brotherhood. They clarify the need for respect for the dignity of man in the face of the indignity man often inflicts upon his fellow men.

They illustrate one of the blessings that comprise the great potential of American democracy: Men of differing creeds can live together in peace and love because they are bound together by a faith greater than themselves.

These are the things that make Holy Week

Good Selection

The Board of Education has made a good choice in the appointment of Stephen A. Gonda to fill the board vacancy caused by the death of Robert Heddleton.

Mr. Gonda, a Salem resident most of his life, has had business experience and a demonstrated civic interest that should enable him to contribute wisely to decisions affecting the operation and management of the Salem public school system.

Better pay for jurors is being urged. It seems unfair to ask a man to spend weeks on a jury while his family adds water to the soup. But isn't there danger jurors may ask fringe benefits and shorter trials? There may even be a jurors' union and banners reading "Jurors Unite!" and "Unfair To Jury Boxes."

Blessing In Disguise

By JAY G. HALDEN

One sure effect of the Wisconsin primary result is to heighten the argument among Democratic nominating delegates as to the good or ill of Sen. John Kennedy's Catholic faith for ultimate victory.

THAT WAS the year also when Ku Klux political influence, coinciding closely with the prevailing constitutional prohibition of the manufacture or sale of anything more alcoholic than 3 per cent beer, was at an all-time peak.

Gov. Smith was Catholic and "wet." McAdoo, with or without his consent, became labeled "Protestant" and "dry."

The clash of ideology was formalized when the resolutions committee confronted with a proposal to condemn the Ku Klux Klan, found the issue too difficult and passed it on to the whole convention.

Thus occurred one of the most amazing verdicts in partisan history. After an all-night debate, the vote of the convention was announced at 5 a.m.: 541 in favor of denunciation of the Ku Klux Klan to 342 against. Thus, by a margin of one vote, the Democratic party tagged itself with the Ku Klux label.

Thereupon the convention ballooned 102 times with Smith and McAdoo barring each other from the required two-thirds. On the 103rd ballot John W. Davis of New York, a Smith supporter, was nominated for president with Charles Bryan, brother of the Ku Klux and "dry" leader, William Jennings Bryan, hooked on for vice president.

The clash of ideology was formalized when the resolutions committee confronted with a proposal to condemn the Ku Klux Klan, found the issue too difficult and passed it on to the whole convention.

THE FOLLOWING November that ticket went down to overwhelming defeat at the hands of the Republican combination of Calvin Coolidge for president and Charles Dawes for vice president.

In 1928 the Democratic party offered a comparable compromise but with Smith as the presidential nominee and Sen. Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas, Dixiecrat and "dry" the vice-presidential running mate.

Again the Republican ticket of Herbert Hoover and Charles Curtis won handily. Smith and Robinson lost four southern states — Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Texas — and north of the Mason and Dixon line won only Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

According to an analysis by the highly objective and bipartisan Milwaukee Journal, there was a marked crossing-over in Wisconsin by Catholic republicans Tuesday in behalf of Senator Kennedy, and comparable Protestant diversions to the support of Senator Humphrey.

As a Republican, sure of nomination, Vice President Nixon conceivably suffered both ways.

There is a strong consensus among political experts of both parties that Senator Kennedy's catholicism will prove a benefit for the final election in northeastern industrial states such as Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin, and in California on the west coast the equation is figured about even.

But throughout the south and its border states and in the agricultural middle west symptoms of anti-Catholic leanings heretofore have seemed strong.

African Complexity

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Three Different Groups Exist In S. Africa

socially apart, all those things.

Q. Of the 1,250,000 mixed, what would you say is the majority?

A. Mixed black and white — you see, it's not just black and white because some of those mixtures, coming from the old days, might have been of the white and Hottentot, white and Malay, it's just a complete mixture.

Q. But they resemble our Negroes, don't they?

A. Yes, your lighter-type Negroes — with more white blood.

Q. Well, a lot of our Negroes have white blood, yet many of our newspapers use the word 'Negro' —

A. That's right, and some of your Negroes in higher echelons — those who are practically white and have long hair — in South Africa many of those would pass for white.

Q. You do not call these people Negroes?

A. No. The only one who is called a Negro is the Bantu — in fact, we call them Bantu and not Negroes, and Bantu is the same word as your Navajo, meaning 'people.' It's the same word. The Bantu are pure blood on both sides, and that is very important is that they have never been enslaved and they are not the descendants of slaves.

Q. Are there many educated Bantu?

Q. And do they live apart with the Bantu?

A. Oh, yes.

A. They live with the Bantu.

Q. Aren't they the ones that are causing most of the protest?

A. Yes.

Q. They have education and they want to live where the whites and the 'colored' live?

A. Yes, but we say what is the use of their having an education if they do not apply what education to the upliftment of their own people — the people who sorely need the services of the educated Bantu. It will be of very little avail if we educate the Bantu and they then turn their backs on their own people and desire to be absorbed by the white people. In that case, while the Bantu don't do it for themselves. And that is the essence of 'apartheid' — that we want them to live themselves, and we will assist them all the time. We do not want them to lose their self-respect by losing their identity, which they may do if they become divorced from their own cultural roots.

Q. Does the white man have any right to go into their communities?

A. Oh, yes, they move in and out of one another's communities freely.

Q. But they have their own residential areas?

A. Yes.

Q. Just as we do in some parts of this country?

A. Precisely.

Q. How many Bantu are there?

A. 9,500,000.

Q. And the whites?

A. There are about 3,250,000.

Q. Of those whites — are half of them Dutch and the other half English?

A. Sixty per cent are Afrikaans. What you call Dutch, we call Afrikaans.

Q. In other words, native-born?

A. Native-born, with Afrikaans as their language.

Q. Do the Afrikaans and English live where they please?

A. Where they please, interspersed. But they do not live in the Bantu areas except when expressly permitted to do so.

Q. Is the Bantu area something like an Indian reservation?

A. Yes, only it's not quite that, because the Bantu areas are the areas originally occupied by the Bantu and are fairly extensive, about 62,000 square miles — which, for instance, is eight times as large as Israel.

Q. Is it larger than the area occupied by the whites?

A. No, the white area is much larger. The total area of the Union is about 450,000 square miles, I think. Much of the white area, though, is arid and agriculturally poor.

Q. When you use the word 'apartheid,' you mean they live apart — is that what the word means?

A. Translated, it means 'separateness,' but actually it means separate development. It includes the whole gamut of living apart —

Stacy-Smith Vows Exchanged In Church At Columbiana

The marriage of Miss Judith Sara Stacy and Ronald Edward Smith took place Saturday in the Jerusalem Lutheran Church in Columbiana. The Rev. Aaron A. Anderson, church pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Stacy of Rogers and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Don E. Smith of Poland.

White satin bows marked the pews in the aisle for the procession to the altar, which was enhanced by arrangements of white lilies and pink snapdragons in milk glass vases. Tapers in seven-branch candelabra lighted the setting.

Miss Virginia Moon of East Palestine was soloist. She sang "I Love You Truly," and "Because." Miss Karen Mint of East Palestine accompanied the soloist and played a prelude of organ music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Italian silk designed with a basque bodice and bouffant skirt. Alencon lace, centered with seed pearls outlined the neckline of the gown, which featured a chapel train. Her veil of illusion was attached to a Juliet cap embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and white carnations.

Reception is Held

A reception was held in Luther Hall. The refreshment table laid with a white rayon cloth, was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with tiny pink rosebuds and a figurine. A garland of lemon leaves and pink carnations encircled the cake, and white roses decorated the tall white tapers in crystal candelabra.

Mrs. Richard Mahon, aunt of the bride, cut the cake, while another aunt, Mrs. Lawrence Stacy of Canton, presided at the punch bowl. A cousin, Mrs. Hal Smith, was at the coffee service.

The bridegroom's sister, Miss Shirley Smith, registered the 200 guests from Salem, Columbiana, Rogers, East Palestine, Poland and Washingtonville, Lisbon, New Middleton, New Waterford, Negley, Youngstown, New Springfield, Petersburg, Hanoverton and Punxsutawney, Darlington, Edinburg, Beaver, New Brighton, and Beaver Falls, Pa.

A graduate of East Palestine High School, Class of 1958, and the Youngstown University's Secretarial School, the bride is employed in the office of the Electric Furnace Co.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Springfield Local High School Class of 1957, was employed by the L. F. Donnell, Inc., before enlisting in the Navy, where he is serving as an electronics technician in Washington, D.C.

For traveling to Cleveland, the honeymoon destination, the bride chose a two-piece green suit with beige and brown accessories, accented by a pink scarf and cymbidium orchid corsage.

The bride will reside with her parents while her husband is stationed in London, Ireland.

Gifts were presented to the attendants at the rehearsal party given by the bridegroom's parents on Friday evening at Heck's restaurant, Columbiana.

Ralph L. Jones, gunner's mate third class, USN, of 339 E. Washington St., Lisbon, and Jerry E. Smith, ship fitter third class of RD 1, Negley, took part in a joint Navy-Narine Corps exercise off the coast of Camp Lejeune, N.C., on March 22-April 5.

Jones is assigned to the dock landing ship USS Spiegel County, and Smith is serving aboard the flagship USS Taconic.

The program is being sponsored by the scout troops at East Palestine. Exact details are yet to be worked out.

Troops invited to participate in the mock disaster include those in Salem, Leetonia, Columbiana, East Fairfield, Lisbon, New Waterford, Hanoverton and Kensington.

Columbiana Teachers Contracts Renewed

COLUMBIANA — Sixteen local teachers whose contracts expire at the end of the current school year were re-employed by the Board of Education at its meeting Monday night. New contracts run for from one to five years, depending on length of service.

The re-employed educators, none of whom were eligible for the continuing, or lifetime, contracts, are: Mrs. Maxine Clark, Mrs. Mi-

Gov. Stratton Of Illinois Renominated

CHICAGO (AP) — Gov. William G. Stratton clinched nomination for a third term today, and Otto Kerner won the right to try to oust him in the November election.

Stratton is the state's No. 1 Republican leader while Kerner has the backing of the top Democratic chieftain, Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago.

The post-midnight count of unofficial returns from Tuesday's Illinois primary also showed that:

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, only entrant in the presidential preference feature, drew a complimentary vote that exceeded his 341,463 total in the April 5 Wisconsin primary. But it fell far short of the 781,710 rolled up by President Eisenhower in the Illinois primary in 1956.

Democrats outpolled Republicans in a relatively light vote of about 1,600,000.

Samuel Witwer, Chicago lawyer who was supported by Stratton and most GOP organizations, led the six-man race for the Republican nomination for U.S. senator in a close contest.

Democratic Sen. Paul Douglas was nominated for a third term without opposition. In incomplete returns he gathered more votes than Nixon.

Stratton earned the chance to become the first Illinois governor to be elected to three terms in a row by defeating State Sen. Hayes Robertson.

Returns from 7,904 of the state's 9,980 precincts gave Stratton 3,52,425 and Robertson 237,898.

Kerner, former Cook County judge, swamped State Treasurer Joseph D. Lohman and Stephen A. Mitchell, former Democratic national chairman, in their party's gubernatorial test.

Returns from 7,256 of the 9,980 precincts gave Kerner 498,781, Lohman 163,191 and Mitchell 126,983.

Steubenville-Weirton Job Situation Good

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio (AP) — The job situation in the newly designated Steubenville-Weirton Metropolitan Area is good, with unemployment estimated at less than 5.5 per cent of the total labor force, the State Unemployment Office announced today.

The Labor Department considers unemployment "slight" when it averages less than 6 per cent.

The area, formerly designated as the Wheeling-Steubenville Metropolitan Area, was split into the Steubenville-Weirton area and the Wheeling area effective April 1.

Labor force in the Steubenville-Weirton area was estimated at 64,000 in January and at 63,600 in March. The unemployment office said the 400 drop is seasonal, reflecting effect of weather on construction work.

Pre-Easter business in the Steubenville area, spurred by a Weirton Steel Co. vacation pay combined with regular pay in Weirton and at Wheeling Steel in Steubenville, totaling more than eight million dollars, has been phenomenal, observers said. Steubenville merchants report increases above the same period last year ranging from 40 per cent to 28 per cent.

Many report business records for the season with merchants using terms such as "fabulous," "wonderful," to "very satisfactory."

Steel mills in Steubenville and Weirton are operating at near-capacity and all report inventories low and plenty of orders. Output ranges from corrugated sheets, tinplate to heavy construction and heavy sheet.

Titanium Metals Corp. at Toronto, near here, a new Barium Metals plant in Steubenville and Vanadium Corp. here, all report production good to high.

Boy Killed, Sister Injured by Grenade

DELWARE, Ohio (AP) — A five-year-old boy was killed and his six-year-old sister injured when an Army rifle grenade with which they were playing exploded Tuesday.

Police said John Howey and his sister, Kathy Sue, were playing in a shed when the grenade exploded. John died a few minutes after being taken to a hospital. Both his legs were mangled. Kathy Sue was in critical condition with a shattered leg.

It was not known where the children got the grenades. Paul Rolen, owner of the shed and a neighbor of the Howeys, said he knew of no grenades in the shed, which he told police was locked.

Two other rifle grenades were found in the debris and taken to Ft. Hayes in Columbus to be deactivated.

The children's father, Edwin F. Howey, is an inspector for Division 6 of the Ohio Highway Department.

Friends of the former senator said the other Burke sought a place on the ballot, pledged to himself, in an effort to draw votes away from Thomas A. Burke.

They attributed the move to Ray T. Miller Sr., Cuyahoga County Democratic chairman, who has entered a partial slate of delegate candidates in opposition to DiSalle's full slate.

Both states are committed to U.S. Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts for the presidential nomination.

The decision said that T. P. Burke signed his declaration of candidacy last Jan. 30 while he was not a resident of the 23rd District. Burke sought to become a qualified voter in the district by moving into a hotel.

Both the Miller and DiSalle slates have two delegate candidates in the 23rd District. With Burke on the DiSalle slate is Howard Metzenbaum, former state senator. Delegate candidates on the Miller slate, pledged to Cuyahoga County Engineer Albert S. Porter as favorite son, are James M. Carney and John T. Corrigan.

Another candidate, Morris Levin of Cleveland, is pledged to himself.

Democratic primary there May 10.

In Washington, a spokesman for the United Mine Workers said the union officially will be neutral in the primary battle. But, he added, some of its leaders favor Humphrey.

The spokesman said John L. Lewis, president emeritus of the union, had informally suggested that he would like to see Kennedy stopped.

"If Mr. Kennedy should win in West Virginia," Humphrey said, at a news conference in Washington, "he ought to be well on the way to tying up the nomination."

"If I do," he continued, "I think I will be on the way to winning considerably more support."

New Waterford Science Teacher Wins Citation

Walter L. Newton of New Waterford High School and the Rev. Michael J. Chenke of Ursuline High School were recognized at the monthly meeting of the rail group in the Youngstown Mural Room.

William L. Tomato Shrimpboats Are Taste Sensation

Pity the poor Andes Indians, who thought that tomatoes were poison and used them only as ornaments.

For ages, tomatoes were cultivated for the decorative qualities of the bright red fruit and the vivid green vine.

Now we know tomatoes are not only good to look at but good to eat and good for us as well. And using tomatoes, you can create a conversation and taste sensation with a new dish, "Tomato Shrimpboats."

Tomato Shrimpboats

4 tablespoons butter, 4 tablespoons flour, 1 tsp salt, 1 egg, slightly beaten, 1/2 cups chicken stock or bouillon, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 lb. shrimp, 1/2 cup coarsely chopped celery, 1/2 cup grated mellow American cheese.

1/4 teaspoon cayenne pepper, 1/2 cup water chestnuts chopped, 1/2 cup mushrooms unpared, 6 ripe firm tomatoes, unpeeled, 6 lettuce leaves (large cupped). Cut large hollows in tomatoes, salt, invert to drain 15 minutes in refrigerator.

Clean shrimp, bring to boil in 1/2 cup stock with celery, cover and simmer until tender—about 8 minutes.

Melt butter in medium saucepan. Blend flour and seasonings. Combine egg yolk and one cup of stock and add to flour mix.

Cook on low heat, stirring constantly until it thickens and comes to a boil. Carefully stir in lemon juice, shrimp, water chestnuts, mushrooms and cheese, completely combining each ingredient before another is added.

Stir well and simmer five minutes. The flavor will be improved by cooking a day ahead, leaving in refrigerator overnight and reheating when ready to use.

Tomatoes should be prepared only a short while in advance. When drained, place on lettuce leaf and fill with piping hot shrimp stuffing. Garnish with paprika and sprig of parsley.

Top each muffin half with a poached egg. Serve hollandaise or creamy cheese sauce over the eggs with a dusting of paprika.

Try Easter Basket Breakfast

Here's a gay beginning for Easter Sunday — an Easter egg breakfast.

The baskets are generous cereal bowls of colored plastic. Line with green cellophane "grass" and fill with special treats such as a baker's sweet roll, a hard-cooked Easter egg, crisp bacon strips (placed in a small piece of foil). The fruit course is an Easter special, too—fruit juice float, made by adding sherbet to a glass of fruit juice.

Fruit Juice Float (12 Servings)

One can (46 ounces) pineapple juice, 1 pint orange sherbet.

Fill juice glasses two-thirds full with juice. Top with two tablespoons of sherbet.

These two dishes are good for special breakfasts:

Baked Egg Casserole

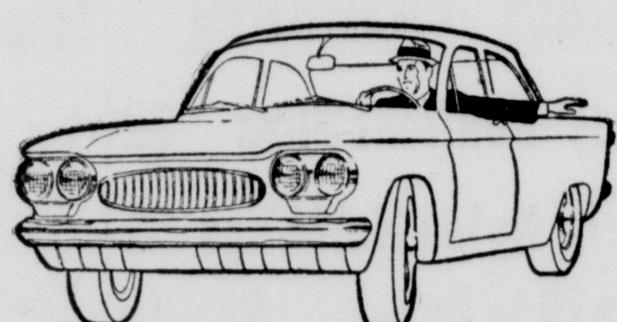

Chopped hard-cooked eggs, diced celery, ground ham and chopped pecans with a suggestion of minced onion and snipped parsley in salt-and-pepper-seasoned mayonnaise, are the ingredients.

Combine, toss together lightly and portion into buttered ramekins or large baking dish.

Method: Melt butter in a 6-inch skillet; cook onion gently about 5 minutes; stir in bread crumbs. In a medium-sized mixing bowl, beat the eggs and milk just until combined; mix in the salmon, including liquid and bones with meat broken into fairly large chunks; mix in the lemon juice, salt, pepper to taste, sage, parsley and onion-crumbs.

Turn into buttered loaf pan (8 by 4 by 2 1/2 inches). Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 40-60 minutes or until knife inserted in center shows custard fat, salt, pepper.

Method: Make hamburger into 8 thin round patties; spread 4 of the patties with a little of the chutney sauce, some of the finely chopped pieces of chutney and slices of water chestnuts.

Crumble bacon coarsely over chestnuts. Top with remaining patties; mold edges together well with fingers to seal.

Brown rapidly on both sides in hot butter in skillet; cook to desired doneness; sprinkle with salt and pepper. Makes 4 servings.

Victorian Cake Evokes Modern Praise

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

AP Newsfeatures Food Editor

Cake mixes are here to stay, and most mothers of growing families use them often. But we have not yet met the young women who—having successfully baked, filled and frosted a cake from scratch—didn't get enormous satisfaction from her accomplishment.

In the middle of 19th Century our Victorian ladies—given the boon of commercially manufactured baking soda and baking powder—developed high and airy cake such as no other cuisine had produced. This recipe for Prune Spice Cake with Penuche Frosting should help to keep alive the grand old American art of cake-baking.

Of the popular flavors used in the 1880's—rose, lemon, orange and spice—the last is still a particular favorite. Adding such as prunes and peniche is another reminder of the days of our Great Cakes. The method of making our cake has been updated to assure 20th Century cooks success; but the rest is definitely in the best of the Victorian tradition.

Frosted Prune Spice Cake

Ingredients: 1 1/2 cups sifted flour, 1 teaspoon baking soda, 3/4 teaspoons salt, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/2 teaspoon cloves, 3/4 cup sugar, 3/4 cup light brown sugar (firmly packed), 1/2 cup soft butter or margarine, 3/4 cup milk, 1 teaspoon cider or distilled white vinegar, 2 eggs, 1/2 cup chopped plumped pitted prunes, Penuche Frosting.

Method: Grease two layer cake pans (8 by 1 1/2 inches); line with waxed paper; grease paper.

Sift together the flour, baking soda, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg, cloves and sugar; add brown sugar and butter.

Stir milk and vinegar together and add. Beat for 2 minutes. Add eggs; beat well another 2 minutes or until smooth. Stir in prunes.

Turn into prepared pans; bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 30 to 35 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Remove from oven and cool 5 minutes; turn out on wire racks; remove paper; cool. Spread Penuche Frosting between and on top of layers. If desired, garnish with prune and walnut halves.

Note: To plump prunes, let 1/2 pound prunes stand in 1 pint (or enough to cover) cold water 24 hours; pit before chopping to make amount called for in recipe.

Penuche Frosting

Ingredients: 2 cups light brown sugar (firmly packed), 1/2 cup milk, 1/2 cup butter or margarine, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup chopped plumped pitted prunes.

Method: Put brown sugar, milk, butter and salt in a saucepan over low heat until butter melts and sugar dissolves.

Stirring constantly, bring quickly to a boil or 240 degrees on a candy thermometer.

Remove from heat and beat until lukewarm. Add prunes, stir until ready to spread.

Polish Beet Soup

Ingredients: 1 can (13 ounces) onion soup, 3 beet bouillon cubes, 3 cups water, 1 can (1 pound) julienne beets, 1 medium-sized carrot (pare and grated medium fine), 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon white pepper, 1 whole clove, 2 small bay leaves, 2 pinches thyme, 1 or 2 large cloves garlic (crushed), 2 tablespoons light brown sugar, 1 tablespoon cider vinegar, red food coloring sour cream or sour cream substitute.

Method: In a saucepan (about 2 quarts) put onion soup, bouillon cubes, water, beets (including liquid in can), carrot, salt, pepper, clove, bay leaf, thyme and garlic.

Heat very slowly to allow flavors to develop—about 25 minutes—but do not boil. Remove bay leaves. Stir in brown sugar and vinegar and simmer about 5 minutes.

Add a little red food coloring. Top with sour cream as soup is served. Makes almost 1 1/2 quarts.

Note: Make soup several hours before serving, or refrigerate overnight, to allow flavors maximum blending—then reheat.

Quaker Tracksters Trample Youngstown Ursuline 86-32

Locals Take 10 Of 14 Firsts

Salem to be Host to Louisville Thursday

By DICK BRAUTIGAM

A strong, well-balanced Salem High track squad raced to its second straight overwhelming victory of the season Tuesday afternoon at Reilly Stadium as it trampled Youngstown Ursuline 86-32.

Coach Karl Zellers' Quakers romped off with 10 firsts out of the 14 events. They also piled up points with nine seconds and nine thirds.

Salem won both the mile and half mile relays and took all three places in the 120-yard high hurdles, pole vault and broad jump.

In Salem's opening meet last week, a triangular affair with United and Beaver Local, the Quakers swept all 14 first places.

THE QUAKERS still have six undefeated trackmen. They are Jim Solmen in the mile, Dan Krichbaum in the 440, Ed Yates in the low hurdles, Tim Burchfield in the 220 and Jim Lehwald and Rick Sulea in the pole vault.

Also unbeaten are the two relay teams. The half mile relay squad is composed of Gary Devan, Dave Edling, Ron Janovec and Tim Burchfield. Running on the mile relay team against Ursuline was Jim Goodballet, Gordy Scullion, Gary Ulrichny and Dan Krichbaum.

Krichbaum and Scullion are regulars on the mile relay team but Ulrichny and Goodballet were running in place of Dick Burt, who has a pulled leg muscle, and Tom Floyd, who did not show up for the meet.

The four men who ran against Ursuline clicked off the mile in the good time of 3:50.5. This is almost four seconds better than the time turned in last week with Burt and Floyd running with Krichbaum and Scullion.

DOUBLE WINNERS for the Quakers yesterday were Burchfield, Krichbaum and Sulea.

Burchfield captured the 220-yard dash with a time of 24.8 after he had anchored the half mile relay team to victory.

Smooth running Dan Krichbaum clicked off a 55.2 to win the 440-yard dash, besides handling the third leg of the mile relay.

Sulea, a talented junior, won the broad jump with a leap of 18-5%. He tied with veterans Jim Lehwald and Charlie Horn in the pole vault. All three cleared 10-6 before bowing out after three tries apiece at 11-0.

Krichbaum was second in the broad jump with a 17-11 1/4 effort. Horn, who won last week's meet with a leap of 18-3 1/4, had to be satisfied with third yesterday with his jump of 17-8.

SULEA DID NOT participate in the broad jump against United and Beaver Local. He cleared more than 18 feet in three of his four jumps against Ursuline.

Junior Herb Call upset the matmenate Ed Yates in the 120-yard high hurdles for Salem. In a near dead heat, Call was clocked at 16.4 and Yates at 16.45. Sophomore John Hiner gave Salem a sweep in the highs as he took down third place with a time of 17.0.

Yates easily won the 180-yard low hurdles with his clocking of 21.6. This was seven-tenths of a second faster than his winning time of 22.3 last week.

ANOTHER BIG improvement was shown by Don Davidson in the high jump. The lanky junior won the event yesterday at 5-9. This was three inches higher than he went in the opening meet.

Jim Lehwald took second place. He cleared 5-7 but failed in three attempts at 5-8. Davidson made 5-9 on his second try and called it a day.

Hosteau of Youngstown Ursuline captured both the shot put and discus. He put the shot 42-11 1/4 and neared the discus 133-1 1/4.

Salem took second and third places in both weight events. Ron Janovec tossed the shot 43-3 1/2 for second place. Ned Chappell was third at 42-11 1/4.

Bob Zeppernick threw the discus 129-8 1/2 for second place in that event. Chappell was third again at 123-5.

OTHER WINNERS for Ursuline were Kenney in the 100-yard dash and Peduzzi in the 880-yard run.

Peduzzi's time in the 880 was 2:09.6. He defeated Salem's ace, Jim Solmen, who placed second with a 2:11.7. The smooth striding Solmen captured his specialty, the mile, with ease. No one was near him at the finish. His time was 4:55.8.

Kenney won the 100-yard dash in 10.6. Janovec was second at 10.7 and Burchfield third at 10.9.

The Quakers will return to action on Thursday at 4 p.m. when they entertain Louisville at the Reilly Stadium track.

QUAKER AT PITTS — Lou Slaby (r.) of Salem and Bob Clemens, regular left halfback for the University of Pittsburgh, are shown getting back to the books after participating in the Panthers' spring football drills. Pitt Coach John Michelosen reports that Slaby looked excellent in spring practice, especially on defense. "He should see a lot of action in 1960," Michelosen commented. Slaby will be a sophomore next year.

Cincy Comes From Behind To Defeat Philadelphia 9-4

CINCINNATI (AP) — Fred Hutchinson, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, was a happy man after Tuesday's season opener against Philadelphia.

His boys had just come from four runs behind to whip the Phillies 9-4.

Doing the big end of the job for the Reds were veteran Roy McMillan and rookie Tony Gonzalez at bat and young Jim O'Toole pitching.

As for Jim Brosnan, an old favorite of Fred's from his days in St. Louis, he merely said his pitches were "high all day long and he was just missing the plate."

Brosnan was knocked out of the game in the second inning as the Phils took a 4-0 lead.

O'Toole, who pitched six fine innings, was praised by the Red-leg manager.

"He pitched as I expected," Hutchinson said. "He has had better control this year than last and he has improved on his changing speeds."

Asked why he took O'Toole out in the ninth inning, he said: "Reliever Bill Henry had not had much action in the last two weeks. 'Henry gets rusty if he is out of action too long,' Fred said.

Henry, obtained from the Chicago Cubs last winter, is considered one of the finest short-term relief pitchers in the National League.

Hutchinson said he would start Cal McLish Thursday and use the same lineup otherwise that started Tuesday.

Before the team leaves for Pittsburgh today, Hutchinson said, they have to have a good afternoon workout at Crosley Field.

The Phils' dressing room was pretty quiet.

"You just have to have good pitching—and it let us down today," said Manager Eddie Sawyer.

"Robin Roberts (the Phils' starter) got little wild," Sawyer added. "And then he had to come in with the ball. He just didn't have real control."

The game was played in perfect baseball weather—cloudless skies and 75° degree temperature. A

Dodgers Eke Out 3-2 Victory Over Cubs In 11 Innings

Giants Defeat Cardinals 3-1

Four League Games Attract 179,782

By The Associated Press
The National League is off on another pennant chase, but except for what happened to relief whiz Roy Face, you'd think it was still '59, what with Los Angeles, Milwaukee and San Francisco jammed together at the top.

The world champion Dodgers, drawing a record crowd at the Coliseum, defeated the Chicago Cubs 3-2 in 11 innings Tuesday night and kept the pace set by the Braves and Giants, who finished 2-3 last year, in afternoon games. The Braves clipped the Pittsburgh Pirates and Face 4-3. The Giants defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 3-1 for a dandy debut in their 15-million-dollar Candlestick Park.

In the other afternoon game, Cincinnati's Reds whipped the Philadelphia Phillies 9-4.

The four games drew 179,782 fans, an opening day record for the NL, which beat the American League, still playing exhibition games, to the punch by six days.

Chuck Essegian, a record maker with a pair of pinch-hit homers as the Dodgers beat the Chicago White Sox in the World Series, broke it up for Los Angeles with a two-out, pinch blast in the 11th off reliever Don Elston. He was batting for Don Drysdale, who blanked the Cubs on three singles over the last eight innings and got a jump toward another strikeout crown. He struck out 14.

The game drew 67,550, a NL record for a night game. The old high was 67,037, set at the Coliseum last August 8 for a game with the Braves.

Joe Adcock's two-run homer in the eighth broke up a 2-2 game for the Braves before 39,888 at Milwaukee's County Stadium. The shot followed a single by Hank Aaron and came off Face, the little right-hander who ran up a two-season streak of 22 victories by winning his first 17 last season. Oddly, the Braves were the only club Face didn't beat in that streak, and the club that beat him last before he started the run. He has dropped seven in a row to Milwaukee, going back to 1956.

Sad Sam Jones, one of three to win 21 a year ago in the NL, gave up only three hits—by ex-Giants—while beating the Cards for the fifth straight time since they traded him to the Giants 13 months ago. Bill White singled twice, in the first and the ninth, and Leon Wagner juked the shutout with a home run in the fifth.

The Phillies and Robin Roberts blew a 4-0 lead at Cincinnati, where 30,075 saw Roy McMillan's two-run homer cap a five-run second. Rookie Tony Gonzalez hit a two-run homer for the Reds, also off Roberts, while lefty Jim O'Toole won it with six innings of two-hitter, shutout relief.

NL Opening Day Sets Attendance Record

By The Associated Press
The National League set an opening day attendance record Tuesday, attracting 179,782 fans as the 1960 season got under way.

A crowd of 67,550 at the Los Angeles Coliseum, a league record for a night game, supplied better than third of the total as the National opened a week ahead of the American League.

The San Francisco Giants, inaugurating their 15-million-dollar Candlestick Park, drew the second largest crowd of the day with a sellout of 42,289 for their game with the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Los Angeles crowd that sat in on the world champion Dodgers' game with the Chicago Cubs eclipsed the old NL night game standard of 67,037 set at the Coliseum for a Los Angeles-Milwaukee game last Aug. 8. The major league high is 78,382 for a Chicago-at-Cleveland game Aug. 20, 1948.

Big Ten Schools Vote Against Sports Ban

CHICAGO (AP)—Northwestern, Purdue and Illinois have joined the growing list of Big Ten schools voting opposition to a proposal to ban all post-season sports.

Significantly, all schools which voted against continuance of the Rose Bowl football games now have come out against the post-season ban. In addition to Northwestern and Illinois, they include Minnesota, Ohio State and Wisconsin.

The schools will instruct their faculty representatives to vote against the embargo, which was proposed at the Big Ten meetings in Columbus, Ohio, last month. athletic directors in reprisal at failure to resume a Rose Bowl contract.

"It now appears," said a high Big Ten official, "that the proposal to ban all post-season sports will be killed by possibly a unanimous 10-vote at the conference meetings in East Lansing, Mich., May 20-21."

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By RUFUS LIDE

Billy Stockberger, 10, of Westerville Lake, caught a five-pound bass that measured 21½ inches, while fishing in the lake at 7 Saturday morning.

Billy has become a "seasoned fisherman" since moving to Westerville Lake. When most kids were worn off for about one inch. That indicates he has spent a lot of time fanning that tail on the bottom of the lake, no doubt ready to die of old age.

I don't remember seeing a bass in the five pound class that didn't have the bottom part of its tail worn off.

SINCE SUNDAY FISHING is permitted at Westerville, there will be plenty of activity on the lake that provides excellent spring bass fishing.

In June, motor boats will be allowed with limited horse power. That will give the fish trollers the opportunity to do a little lazy fishing. About four years ago 500 adult walleyes were placed in the lake and only about 100 were caught by the fishermen.

Now the question is: are there any walleyes in the lake? I'll say no and hope someone proves me wrong.

Some were taken occasionally for a few months after the lake was stocked. If there are any left in the lake, somebody ought to come up with one to prove it.

There may be rare exceptions to the rule but lakes under 500 acres should not be considered walleye waters.

SUCKERS ARE on the move in the tributaries to our rivers and creeks. Spearing or gigging is legal in Ohio One "wiseacre" told me he had quit spearing suckers since it has been legalized as it was no fun. People are funny.

Some people credit the groundhog as being weather forecaster. For instance, when he saw his shadow after he emerged from his hole on Feb. 2, he promptly returned for six more weeks of hibernation.

Since then we have had nine weeks of winter allowing one week for mild weather. That "bucktoothed" rodent doesn't know any more about weather forecasting than I do.

Furthermore, one of them was killed on the highway at New Garden, I saw last Sunday. He didn't have sense enough to stay home during the snow flurries.

BILLY STOCKBERGER And Five-Pound Bass

in bed, he was out with a spinning rod tossing out a CP Swing that did the trick. Incidentally, it was snowing and the temperature was about 25 degrees when the fish struck.

I have seen him out fishing through the ice in February and March and he held his own with the other fishermen landing bluegills and crappies using a hand line minus the pole.

He also landed 16, 17 and 18½ inch bass and thought nothing of it. So far, he is the current champion and in line for the prize provided by the lake management for the biggest bass of the season.

I SAW BASS that went over seven pounds taken from the lake two years ago. On the other hand, you big boys who call yourself fishermen, answer the question honestly: have you ever caught a five-pound bass in northern waters?

Another interesting feature about the bass was that it was a male fish and the bottom part of his

Rickey Reiterates New Loop Will Open Action on Schedule

NEW YORK (AP)—Branch Rickey has reiterated that the Continental League, despite lack of support from organized baseball, will begin operations in 1961 on schedule.

The 79-year-old head of the would-be major circuit said he was more certain than ever that the Continental League would not only become a reality next year but will surpass the currently con-

Tribe Gets Demeter In Swap With Tigers

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Steve Demeter, acquired by the Cleveland Indians from the Detroit Tigers, is expected to fill the Tribe's need for a right-handed pinch hitter and reserve infielder.

In a straight player swap, the Indians Tuesday gave the Tigers utility first baseman - outfielder Norm Cash for the rookie third baseman.

Cash, who throws and bats left-handed, went to the Indians last December in a trade that sent Minnie Minoso to the Chicago White Sox.

Demeter, in the Detroit system seven years, had compiled a 319 mark in exhibition games but wasn't given a chance to oust veteran Eddie Yost from his job at third base.

Demeter hit .295 at Charleston, W. Va. (American Assn.), last season, but managed only two hits in 18 times at bat after he was moved up to Detroit.

Sugar Hart, Cuban To Tangle Tonight

CHICAGO (AP)—Rocky Kallingo of Manila is a fighter with a mission.

"I want fight fans of this country to like me and I want to beat Hart tonight very much to make good impression and get a ranking," says the 24-year-old Philippine welterweight champion.

Kallingo five months ago stopped the then undefeated Cuban, Florentino Fernandez, in the first round and gained international attention. Kallingo will be making his national television debut in Chicago Stadium.

His foe for the 10-rounders—ABC 10 p.m. EST—is seasoned Sugar Hart of Philadelphia, 10-0. Hart, 28, has fought two bouts. Hart, slumping to the ranking of No. 7 contender, can hit with either hand and has scored 21 knockouts in 28 victories.

He has fought two draws and lost five, the last two to high-ranking Charley Scott and Luis Rodriguez.

Kallingo, a busy-fisted battler with a steaming right, also claims 21 kayoos. His records shows 40 victories, 6 losses and 5 draws.

Leetonia Wins Track Meet

Jackson-Milton 65½-43½ Victim

The Leetonia Bears opened their track season at home Tuesday with a smashing 65½-43½ victory over Jackson-Milton.

Bob Gullet raced to victories in the 100-yard high hurdles and the 180-yard lows. His time in the high hurdles was 15.9. The junior posted a winning time of 2:10.9. Tilley also anchored the winning mile relay team.

Due to a few bad spots in the Leetonia track, some of the track events were not run at regulation distances.

Leetonia chalked up eight firsts compared to five for Jackson-Milton. Terry Tilley captured the 880-yard run for the Bears in the good time of 2:10.9. Tilley also anchored the winning mile relay team.

Leetonia's Jim Stelts won the shot put with a heave of 39-6. Painter's 56.9 was good enough to gain him the top spot in the 440-yard dash. Ed Rowedick picked up another first for the Bears with a leap of 17-5½ in the broad jump. Mike Burgess captured the high jump for the Bears at 5-5.

Jackson-Milton had a triple winner in Berry. He captured the 95-yard dash in 10.9 and the 220-yard dash in 25.5. He also ran on the winning half mile relay team.

Other Jackson-Milton firsts were: Rihoe in the mile, 5:19.6; Woloschak in the discus, 114-6; and the 880-yard relay team (Groves, Poling, Berry and Dent), 1:41.

Leetonia will be in action again at home on Thursday against North Lima.

Detroit bowlers during 1959 had 21 ABC-approved 300 games.

Present plans call for a 55,000-seat stadium with movable sections for conversion to accommodate 60,000 for football. A proposed parking lot will accommodate 5,500 automobiles. The stadium will also feature two sections of rotating seats, the absence of pillars and columns or any other obstruction, escalators and continuous lighting.

The city will build the stadium and lease the structure to the baseball franchise owners. The venture, according to the mayor, will not cost the taxpayers a penny. It will be self-liquidating, on the basis of a 30-year bond issue. Rental would be $900,000 a year.

Batting — Joe Adcock, Braves, drove in three runs and beat Pirates 4-3 with tie-breaking, two-run homer in eighth inning, his third hit.

Pitching — Sam Jones, Giants, checked the Cardinals on three hits and walked but one for 3-1 victory.

A—Mobile, Ala. The city has been owned by the French, British, and Spanish, and has flown the flags of the American colonies, the Confederate States, and the United States.
